 Reporter News Staff

The Pearland Lady Oilers opened up District 23-6A action against a very talented Alvin team and lost 11-1 in the league opener for both teams.

Since that disappointing loss, Pearland head coach Laneigh Clark has seen her girls rebound with four straight wins for a 4-1 mark in first round action.

Pearland ran through the three Alief schools, Elsie (15-0), Taylor (15-0), and Hastings (18-0), for a combined score 48-0. The Lady O's then picked up their most recent win with a 9-2 victory over Shadow Creek.

The first inning set the stage for the game as Pearland scored five times for an early 5-0 lead in the bottom of the first.

Alayna Calvillo stroked a one-out single past the second baseman to reach first base. Kennedy Drafton reached base on a fielder's choice while Calvillo was tossed out on a force out at second. Raenna Liscano blasted a double to right field sending Drafton across home plate for a 1-0 lead.

Kristyn Whitlock belted a two-out home run over the centerfield fence for a 3-0 advantage.

Lydia Njus follows with a double, Trinity Perry singled to centerfield sending pinch runner Grace Gonzalez to third base. Alissa McClellan singled to centerfield to score Gonzalez and Perry while McClellan is cut down advancing to second to end the inning with the Lady Oilers leading 5-0.

Shadow Creek scored a run in the top of the fourth to narrow the score to 5-1, but Pearland answered in their half of the fourth with three more runs making the score 8-1.

Drafton had the key hit in the frame with a two-run single that scored Hailey Golden and Darian DeLeon as both also reached base via a single.

The Lady Oilers added one more run in the bottom of the sixth to make the score 9-1 while the Lady Sharks score a run in the top of the seventh to make the final 9-2.

Top hitters for Pearland included DeLeon (3-for-3, 2 runs), Perry (2-for-3, 2 runs), Golden (2-for-3, 1 run, 1 RBI), Drafton (1-for-3, 1 run, 2 RBIs), Whitlock (1-for-4, 1 run, 3 RBIs), Liscano (1-for-4, 1 run, 1 RBI), Njus (2-for-3), McClellan (1-for-2, 2 RBIs), and Calvillo (2-for-4, 1 RBI).

Letter to the Editor

Dear Editor,

Galveston County is fortunate Marcus Rives is running for the Drainage District Board of Trustees again! His leadership has been evident throughout his time on (GCCDD). There are three words that describe his dedication to the position: Continuity, Connectivity and Creativity.

Continuity in terms of continuing the work already in progress with the drainage district. His background in architecture facilitates his decision making. Having lived in Friendswood as a young person and returning to raise his family shows his desire to grow the area in the best way possible.

Marcus is highly aware of the connectivity needed to make ideas move forward to completion. He has served on numerous committees and boards which work together to meet goals. The connection of various groups is significant for success.

Creativity comes into action in regards to his ability to look at problems and concerns in a new way. He does that in his architectural firm and all pursuits. He has the ability to create vision where none seems to exist.

Marcus's credentials speak for themselves. Please go to his website and read his biography. He has been and will continue to be an asset to GCCDD. It is my pleasure to recommend Marcus Rives for another term on GCCDD.

FAITH MATTERS

By Rev. Dr. Brian Gige

THE HEART OF THE MATTER

“Back on the road, they set out for Jerusalem. Jesus had a head start on them, and they were following, puzzled and not just a little afraid. He took the Twelve and began again to go over what to expect next. “Listen to me carefully. We are on our way up to Jerusalem. When we get there, the Son of Man will be betrayed to the religious leaders and scholars. They will sentence him to death. Then they will hand him over to the Romans, who will mock and spit on him, give him the third degree, and kill him. After three days he will rise alive.”

~ Mark 10:32-34

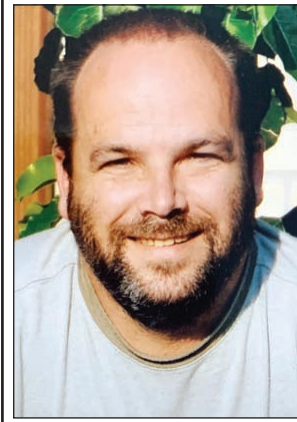

A lot of us are just a little puzzled and afraid these days. Still. Or again. The younger we are... the more afraid we can be and the older we get the more puzzled we become! No one seems to be exempt as social media streams its way into our hearts and minds providing us images and pictures of home and around the world we'd rather not see let alone talk about... Imagine what Jesus' disciples were feeling when he told them what was on deck for him... a death spiral he prefaced by saying, 'listen to me carefully...'

Over the past couple of weeks, I've made mention of my fondness for the season of Lent. Like Christmas or Easter and whether it has any meaning to you at all, it still comes each year... Lent that is... marching 40 days on its way to the celebration of Jesus' resurrection from the dead. So... that makes Lent a time of thoughtful reflection. Do you find it helpful? It's kind of like "pre-season" or "band camp" before the good stuff comes so we can play with a bit more grit and verve... and I guess that's what Jesus was up to as well... telling his disciples about the heart of the matter and all... as I suspect it was pretty cool hanging around the rabbi from Nazareth witnessing him turning water into wine, healing a blind man and sending off the lepers who had lost their spots... only to hear of his impending demise... a moment in time we know now he accepted willingly... Faith matters... and Jesus had faith to give so we'd have faith to share...

During this time of church life, Christians focus in on the unfolding events that led to Jesus' condemnation and crucifixion: His triumphal march into Jerusalem on Palm Sunday; His firm words of warning about the events to come; His sham trial—one of the first historical reports of "fake news", the brutal scourging, and horrific crucifixion. No movie or painting can depict the truth of this with no day being any darker, no travesty more calamitous than the slaying of God's own Beloved Son. And yet, that's what we recall leading up to that moment on "the hill of the skull"—Golgotha: our sins demanding His death on a cross to satisfy the Father's righteous judgment. Were you there when they crucified our Lord? Sure, you were! We all were! Taken from the cross, the lifeless form of Christ was placed in another man's tomb. He owned nothing the day he died... yet he was present at creation! And with that action the "powers of the day" thought the ordeal complete, the savagery it had witnessed was something it could now tie off with a bow. But God's work wasn't quite done. Three days later, out of a sealed tomb—guarded to prevent theft—Jesus rose from the dead. And with that thunderous crescendo, humankind's disgrace and ruin, which had destined it for eternal slaughter, was forgiven through the blood of Christ. So... again... what is left of Lent is the time we fix our eyes on the cross... as it was there where Jesus, the sinless Son of God, suffered the indignity and shame of dying for our sins. And it was there where God's disappointment was satisfied by his beloved Son's supreme sacrifice, winning salvation for all who call Jesus... Savior, Lord and King... not at all about you... or me... but all about God... and the heart of the matter where everything else falls short in comparison...

SPORTS

From the Cluttered Desk

by Dr. David Davis

"If the creek don't rise!"
 One of the great historic shrines in our country is the Alamo. But you don't have to be a Texan to be proud of what happened there.

In 1836, the Mexican General Santa Ana, led 4,000 troops against the Alamo. The Alamo was defended by 200 Texans. Although they were outnumbered 20-to-1 — the Texans held out for 13 days. In the end, not a man in the Alamo remained alive.

Several years ago an oil-rich Sheik tried to buy the Alamo. It seemed he wanted to give it to his son for a wedding present. The Sheik was informed that the Alamo was not for sale - not for any price.

You know, some things should not be for sale. In fact - every one of us should have something that is not for sale. Like integrity, character, and honesty.

When I was growing up there used to be an expression "If the creek don't rise." That was a mild type of commitment.

But the phrase "If the creek don't rise" was related more to the commitments we were willing to make in life.

In other words, I'll do a certain thing "If the creek don't rise."

I found out early in life not to count on people who are not willing to make a more meaningful commitment than this.

For creeks do rise - you can count on it!

In order for life to be meaningful we are to honor our commitments.

The Texans at the Alamo made a life commitment. They took their stand despite the odds and the outcome. They were willing to stand together regardless of what the creek did.

The above words certainly apply to all who have been on a journey for a long time.

You can't buy integrity, character, and honesty. Those three words can be greatly tested when we are facing a rising creek. In the end, it is commitment that will either win out or be compromised. And above all - our integrity, character, and honesty should never have a price tag!

Old friend Robert said, "I believe in integrity. Dogs have it. Humans are sometimes lacking it."

FIRST COLLEGIATE WIN

Former Pearland High School golfer Kendall Jackson now attends Howard University in Washington D.C. where she is on the golf team. Jackson recently won the Cardinal Classic for her first win at the college level. Competing against 11 teams, Jackson shot a 70 (-2) to finish ahead of 56 other golfers. Jackson qualified for the state golf tournament twice when she was a freshman and senior at Pearland. She holds the PHS record with a round of 67. This is Howard University's inaugural women's golf class. The university reignited its golf programs after a generous donation from NBA superstar Steph Curry.

GAME-WINNING SCORE - Pearland Oiler junior DH Franco Aguilar slides into home to score the clinching run in the bottom of the sixth inning as the Oilers took a 3-2 victory over Alvin to split the season series 1-1. The game-winning RBI sacrifice fly was hit by sophomore RF Isaiah Casteneda. Casteneda finished with two RBI's on the night while Daniel Ontiveros added another RBI.

Pearland splits district games with Alvin

By DR. DAVID DAVIS
 Reporter News Staff

Pearland and Alvin split District 23-6A baseball games with the Yellowjackets winning the first game 8-7 and the Oilers claiming the second game 3-2.

That gives the Oilers an early 3-1 league record after Pearland swept Strake Jesuit in the district opener for both teams.

In the first game between the two district rivals, Alvin prevailed 8-7 after scoring all of their runs in the bottom of the fifth after the Oilers had built a 6-0 lead through the first five frames.

Alvin took advantage of three hit batters and three walks as the first eight batters scored to take an 8-6 lead in the fifth. The Oilers scored a run in the top of the sixth to close the gap to 8-7 in the district loss.

PEARLAND 3 - ALVIN 2

The Oilers rebounded from their 8-7 loss to Alvin to take the second game of the district series 3-2 behind the strong pitching of Mark Zapata.

Alvin took the early lead with two runs in the top of the third for a 2-0 lead, but Pear-land tied the game with a pair of runs in the bottom of the fourth to make the score 2-2.

Pearland scored, what turned out to be the winning run, in the bottom of the sixth when DH Franco Aguilar scored on a one-out sacrifice fly by sophomore RF Isaiah Casteneda for a 3-2 lead and eventually the final score. Casteneda had two RBIs for the Oilers in the game.

Zapata went the distance on the hill for Pearland as he allowed four hits, two runs, two strikeouts, and two walks over seven innings.

Lady Mustangs shutout Nederland 6-0 in first round

By DR. DAVID DAVIS
 Reporter News Staff

Same song - same verse. While it must get old to the Friendswood Lady Mustang opponents - it never gets old to Friendswood head coach Laura Peter as the Lady 'Stangs blanked the Nederland Lady Bulldogs 6-0 in the Class 5A Region III bi-district contest.

No. 5 Class 5A state-ranked Friendswood is now 23-1 for the season and they have not allowed a goal in those 23 wins.

"There were maybe some jitters in the beginning; we didn't start as good as we hoped we would, but we figured it out quickly," Peter said. "It was nice to get that first win."

Olivia Schmidt scored the first goal roughly 12 minutes of the match for a 1-0 lead. Schmidt scored two more times for Friendswood to record her hat trick in the first half.

Peter finished off the match with two more goals in the second half for her hat trick and the 6-0 win.

Gisele Kehres and Brook Spinks each recorded an assist in the match.

While the Friendswood offense was finding the net, the stingy Lady Mustangs defense allowed Nederland only one shot on goal for the entire match and that came in the second half.

Friendswood's starting back line of Lauren Littleton, Breanna Friberg, Emma Saldana, Rachael Wiest and goalkeeper Ellen Fairbanks recorded the clean sheet for the team's 23rd shutout of the season - and the first of what the Lady Mustangs hope will be more to come in the playoffs.

The Lady Mustangs played Fulshear on Tuesday, March 29 in the second round at Stafford High School.

Pearland boys soccer takes out Clear Falls 3-1 in first round

By DR. DAVID DAVIS
 Reporter News Staff

The Pearland Oilers faced District 24-6A runner-up Clear Falls in the opening round of the Class 6A Region III soccer playoffs and came away with a 3-1 win to advance to the next round where they will face the Humble Wildcats.

Clear Falls drew first blood in the match in the 12th minute when Dom Konwinski sent a perfect pass to Carlos Loreda, who flicked a header past the Pearland goalkeeper for a 1-0 lead.

But Pearland would respond with two unanswered goals for a 2-1 lead at halftime.

Pearland tied up the contest in the 25th minute when Gerardo

Cruz sent a well-placed assist to Skyler Krchnak, who beat the keeper one-on-one to knot the score 1-1.

Roughly four minutes later, Pearland got the go-ahead goal when Clear Falls committed a handball infraction inside of the penalty box to give the Oilers a penalty kick opportunity, which Yousef Elnokali put in the back of the net with a beauty of a kick for a 2-1 lead.

Both teams played hard in the second half, but only Pearland was able to find the net on offense.

In the 55th minute, Pearland's Thomas McNamera looped a free kick from about 21 yards out into the goal for the final 3-1 score.

PROTECTING THE NET - Pearland goalie Samuel Munoz (1) makes a save on the score attempt by Clear Falls. The Oilers beat the Knights 3-1 in the Class 6A Region III soccer playoffs at Veterans Memorial Stadium in League City. Pearland will face Humble in the second round.
